THE ALMA MATER

By Lincoln Hulley

*Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children!
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely;
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples,
Hail, Alma Mater dear.*

*Hail to the heroes who have gone before us.
Young men and maidens, filled with true devotions!
Bright is their glory, fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!*

*Hail to our classmates, bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge our vows of friendship;
Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud the chorus;
Long live our comrades dear!*

*Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus,
Hail, Alma Mater dear!*

To

MR. JOHN B. STETSON JR.

Whose kindly interest manifested in Stetson University and its students is returned by their friendship and affection, this book is dedicated.

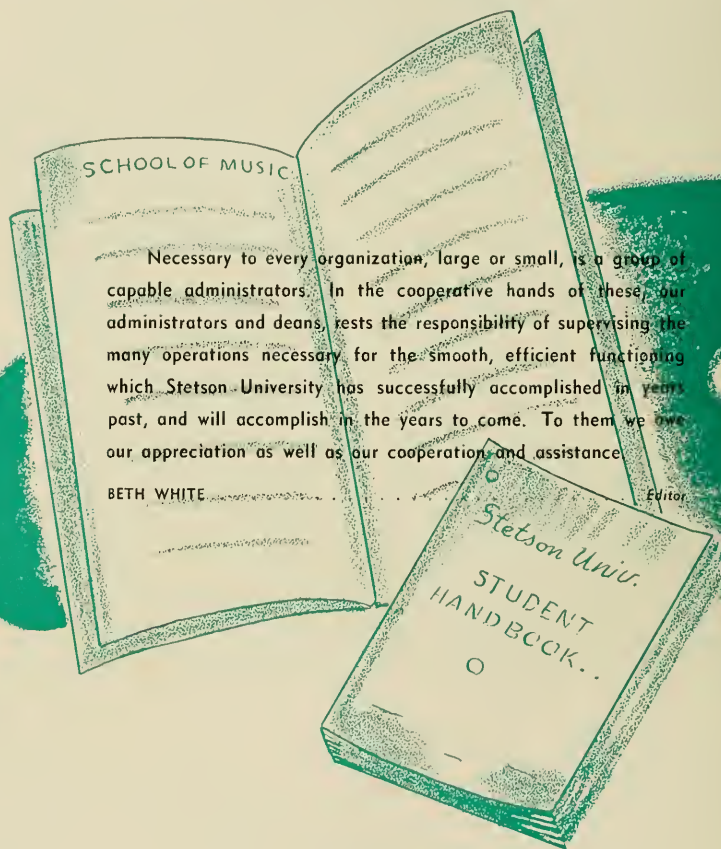

This inscription is found in the first yearbook of Stetson University, published in 1908. The Hatter staff of 1953 closes a span of time by paraphrasing the first dedication to read:

To

MR. JOHN B. STETSON JR.

Whose kindly interest manifested throughout his lifetime in Stetson University and its students is returned by their friendship and affection and the confidence that this interest will continue throughout the lifetime of Stetson University, this book is dedicated.

ADMINISTRATION

Necessary to every organization, large or small, is a group of capable administrators. In the cooperative hands of these, our administrators and deans, rests the responsibility of supervising the many operations necessary for the smooth, efficient functioning which Stetson University has successfully accomplished in years past, and will accomplish in the years to come. To them we owe our appreciation as well as our cooperation and assistance.

J. OLLIE EDMUNDS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Once again it is my privilege to send greetings to Stetson men and women wherever the 1953 "Hotter" may be read.

We have been proud this year of the record of our students. They have had a good year. They have worked hard; they have played hard. But in work or play, they never forget that they are Stetson men and women.

The University continues in its aim "to prepare students to take their places in American society as responsible citizens." The events of the year have reminded us that we dare not relax our efforts to keep the Christian faith and the American idea burning brightly in the lives of all of them.

As the year 1952-53 draws to a close, I call upon the entire Stetson family—those of you here on the campus, and the rest of you 'round the world—to accept the challenge of President Eisenhower and on every occasion to "give testimony, in the sight of the world, that the future belongs to the free."

The University Men's Council, consisting of the presidents of all men's organizations, is the advisory group which reviews cases of violation of the university regulations, and render a decision. This decision is in the form of a recommendation to the Academic Council of the University. The Men's Council serves also as a connection link between the men of the university and the administration.

Bob Huffman (left) received the Pafford Memorial Award as the outstanding male student of 1951-52.

S C H O O L S

Next we present the colleges and classes of the university, from Music to Business, undergraduate freshmen to law seniors. These are the component parts of Stetson which make it the truly great institution that it is—the student body and the faculty which leads and teaches it. Present day leaders and supporters of Stetson University can look with pride upon these individuals as living proof of a job well done.

The College of Law, located temporarily on the Naval Air Station campus, is the oldest law school in Florida, its first catalogue having been published in 1900. The second annual announcement stated: "... It is sought not merely to familiarize the student with certain rules of law, but also to develop a legal mind and train him in the art of legal reasoning." The College of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and is approved by the Council of Legal Education of the American Bar Association.

The Stetson Law Students Association consists of the entire membership of the College of Law. Its purpose is to provide a unified association of students enrolled in the College of Law, with a view toward maintaining a closer relationship among the students of the various classes and between the individual student and the administration. The Association endeavors to promote the interest of the student individually and collectively, and to provide a measure of self-government for the members of the College of Law.

The Honor Court, which is a part of the Association, serves as a court for the trial of infractions and the recommendation of punishment in cases of guilt. The court consists of a judge elected by the Association, who presides over all trials, and a jury drawn from the membership for each individual trial, students acting as prosecuting and defense attorneys. Florida rules of procedure are used for all trials.

In November of 1952 the Hatter once again sponsored its annual beauty contest with several special opportunities going to the winners. The first place winner represented Stetson in the Orange Bowl Queen Contest, the second place contestant was the guest of the Gator Bowl Committee for their beauty queen contest, and the third place entry represented Stetson University at the Tangerine Bowl football game and festival. A hearty congratulations to the winners and thanks from the Hatter staff to all those who made the contest the success that it was Selects . . .

Something new in choosing beauties for the 1953 Hatter was tried this year as the staff approached Mr. Johnny Mize, famous baseball star, and asked him to pick Stetson's campus queens. In our book, his selections scored a definite "homerun", with Ginger Rich first, Caroline McGinnis second, and Joan Mace, Mary Glenn Lowry, Bunnie Stephens, and Ann DeLaney as runners-up. The Hatter congratulates these girls, one and all.

THE CO-OPERATIVE PLAN at STETSON UNIVERSITY

A large life insurance company offers its employees the opportunity to earn and learn under the Co-op Plan.

An on-the-job Co-op student, training for an executive position, decorates a counter in a large chain store.

Co-op student takes inventory as part of job training.

The purpose of Stetson's Co-op Plan is threefold—to furnish on-the-job experience in a student's major field of study; to make possible a greater understanding of human relations in business; and to make possible financial aid to students. Both men and women may become Co-op students.

Many business executives today feel that classroom experience received in college will not take the place of actual work in a related field in industry, therefore, many Co-op students are creating a permanent career for themselves while attending college. Students working on their jobs come in daily contact with fellow employees and the public, thereby gaining a valuable insight into business ethics, economics, and psychology. Co-op students generally pay most of the costs of their education from on-the-job income.

Mr. E. B. Crim is the present director of the Stetson Co-op Plan.

One of the main contributory factors to the growth of Stetson University is its athletic program, as represented by the players, coaches and students in this portion of the 1953 Hatter. As each year passes the competition becomes more and more keen, yet we can all be proud of the records compiled by our teams. The basis of Hatter athletics maintains that scholarship is the primary consideration, for at Stetson we like to think that "it's not whether we won or lost, but how we played the game" that really counts.

Coach Jay Pattee inherited a football picture this fall with one of the roughest slates in the grid-history of Stetson. Pattee made the jump from Assistant Coach to Head Coach after the '52 spring training session.

Pattee was assisted by Don Hardage, a familiar face around Stetson's campus. Hardage had the task of tutoring the Hatter line.

Much credit is due this pair for doing a splendid job in the face of overwhelming odds.

N. E. LOUISIANA

After a slow start which saw the Louisiana boys running up much yardage through the Hatter line, the Big Green really began to roll with Han, B. Marks, Werner, and Odom sparking the running attack. Louisiana made it close with two quick scores before the half ended. The second half was all Werner as he scored his third and fourth TDs of the game on two sensational pass interceptions of 40 and 88 yards. The Hats had served notice that they would be tough . . . Werner was picked as Florida's outstanding back. Final score 40-20.

FURMAN

The brother Baptists from the Palmetto State held the Big Hats to no score and took a 7 point lead at the half. But, after the half-time pow-wow, it was a different ball game. DeLilla generalled a 73 yard drive for the first Stetson tally. Parrish intercepted a pass, Golde recovered a fumble, and both were converted into scores, the first by a line plunge. The Hatter touchdown machine was cranked up in the final minutes to score on a bruising 81 yard drive. Han's play was rewarding, for he was picked as Florida's outstanding back. Final score 25-14.

TAMPA

A rain-soaked field, injuries to key Hatter personnel, and some rugged line play by both elevens all chipped in to account for a tie ball game down in Tampa. The Big Hats drew first blood as Bobby Marks put the seal on a thirty-four yard drive with a four yard dash around end for the first—and what proved to be the last—TD. Tampa scored on a freak pass play late in the final quarter, but Herb Werner sliced into the Spartan backfield to block the extra-point attempt. Laude, Tambur, Han, B. Marks, and Looman led the Hatters.

Tension on the bench.

PARIS ISLAND MARINES

Though the final score indicated a runaway ball game, the Hats never gave up an opportunity to show the Marines a good battle. The Hatters surprised everyone as they drew first blood when Bobby Marks went over from the four. A determined Stetson forward wall kept the Marine ground game in check, but Vacanti's passing figured in five Parris Island scores. Leathers and Tambur kept the Marine T-backs' shoestrings untied a good part of the night in some stellar line play. The Hatters managed to score once more in the third period on a Gallagher-to-Odom pass.

FLORIDA STATE

It was one of those hard-fought games, led by a stout defensive play, but neither the Hats nor the Seminoles could find the scoring punch near the goal line. After a first half dominated by F.S.U., the Hats changed the picture by keeping the Indians backed up inside their 30 most of the second half. The Big Green made several moves inside the F.S.U. 20, but penalties seemed to nullify crucial plays. Leathers, Tambur, and Looman led the Hatter defense, while Odum took the offensive honors with a 43 yard dash in the last quarter to give Stetson a 6-6 tie.

HOMECOMING

E. CAROLINA

Against a Pirate crew that refused to strike colors, the Hatters controlled play for three quarters only to be shocked by two quick Carolina scores in the final period. The first half was scoreless with both teams throwing up strong defensive patterns. The Hatters pleased the Homecoming crowd with three well-engineered TDs in the second half. Bobby Marks swept 12 yards around end for the first, Gallagher cracked over from the five, and Yonge took a toss from Stan Marks for the last Hatter tally. Stetson held a 19-6 lead with less than eight minutes to play, but the Tar Heels scored on a pass, a spectacular 88 yard punt return, and added one PAT to give them a 19-19 tie. Tambur, Looman, Leathers, Hopkins, and Reinke led the defensive play, with Odum, B. Marks, and Han leading the offense.

MIAMI

After holding the Hurricanes to only two markers in the first half and to no score in the third quarter, the scrapping but out-manned Hats gave up twenty-seven points in the final period to go down in Miami's Orange Bowl, 35-0. Paced by Tambur, Leathers, Hopkins, Reinke, and Hofford, the Big Green threw two bruising goal line stands at Gustafson's bag of tricks. The Hatters started well but the 'Canes stopped the drive on their own 21. Stetson missed another opportunity to score just as the half ended after Reinke had intercepted a Miami aerial.

TROY STATE

With nine seniors playing their final home game, there was little doubt as to the fate of the Troy Red Wave as Coach Pattee had every weapon polished and "loaded for b'ar." Bobby Marks went over from the two after three and one half minutes. Stan Marks sneaked over from the one after a 53 yard drive. Gallagher made the longest run of the season as he flashed 78 yards to paydirt. Bobby Marks tallied his second TD in the fourth quarter from 19 yards out, and Stan Marks hit Laude for a pass for the finale.

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN

In spite of the Hatters' one-sided loss to the Mississippi Southerners, the Mississippi coach rated Stetson as his toughest opponent, excluding Alabama. The underdog Hats controlled the opening session with a drive which was halted by a pass interception. The Big Green did their usual good job in the first half and played the Southerners on fairly even terms before yielding a three-touchdown burst in the final quarter.

COACH DICK MORLAND
Head Basketball and Physical Education Director

BASKETBALL at

Taking over the helm of the Department of Health and Physical Education, and the post of varsity basketball coach . . . Coach Richard B. Morland brought to Stetson a long record of achievement in the athletic world. A graduate of Birmingham-Southern College and holding a Master's Degree from Springfield College, he has much experience in various city-wide YMCA programs in Birmingham, Louisville, McBurney, N. Y., and New York City. Morland was no stranger to this area, as he led his team at Florida Southern to the Dixie Conference Championship in 1950. This edition of the Hats carried all the way to the second round of the NAIA tournament under his watchful eye . . . a fitting warning to Gatorland for things to come from the Hats on the hardwood.

With a very strong finish by virtue of some excellent tournament basketball, the 1953 edition of the Hi-Hats rang down the curtain on one of Stetson's best cage seasons in several years after making its strong bid for the NAIA crown out in Kansas City. The season held its share of thrillers . . . Florida 77-74 over the Hats early in the campaign . . . Louisville 83, Stetson 81 down in Sarasota . . . Miami 71, Stetson 70 with a host of bad breaks down in Miami . . . Stetson 83, Georgia Teachers 82 with a shortage of fingernails . . . Stetson 80, Miami 77 and sweet revenge out in the arena. After a hot and cold regular schedule, the Hats primed their big guns for the District 25 NAIA Playoff games here in DeLand. The results . . . one-sided victories over the Rollins Tars and the Seminoles from Florida State . . . and a crack at the national title in the Kansas City meet. The two-game stand in Kansas City, after the schedule page had gone to press, left Stetson with a 15-won, 10-lost record for the season. The Hats defeated Iowa State Teachers in the opening round by a 75-57 margin . . . but dropped the second tilt to the hot-as-a-firecracker defending champs from Springfield College in Missouri . . . In Coach Morland's words, "They were hot; we were not."

Imgrund raises storm warnings . . .

The Hi-Hatters poured a total of 1855 points through the nets in their 25 games for a respectable average of 77 points per game . . . a modern era high for a Stetson cage team. This year's club was also the "travelingest" team in the school's history . . . they took a three-thousand mile jaunt into the mid-west during the Christmas holidays, and followed with another on the Kansas City invasion. In state competition the Hats finished up with seven wins and four losses . . . all of 'em "real thrillers".

Forward John Imgrund, adding 37 points in the national tourney, built his position as leading scorer up to a 438 point total with an 18.3 average . . . Jim Carlin hit for 263 . . . Shanks Hansel for 226 . . . Jim Taveniere sank 201 before he left the team via graduation in February and thus left a big gap in the Hatter offense. Oksnee was the set-shot artist and proved to be a great clutch player . . . Yange added a needed under-the-basket punch after football ended . . . Cassidy provided his height at center . . . Smith was a valuable ball-handling artist . . . Silvers, Crumpton, and Garrett proved to be valuable reservists on more than one occasion.

All we have to add is that . . . basketball . . . and good basketball at that . . . is here to stay at Stetson!

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

With the "ole weather-eye" looking for a slot on the varsity line-up, the Baby Hats provided the fans with a smooth exhibition of the cage game. As the season progressed the frosh hit their stride against some rather respectable opponents . . . Coach Eakin kept his club moving right along and pointed out some rising material for next year's edition of the Hi-Hatters.

BASEBALL . . .

With a formidable twenty-three game schedule listing such "big names" as Georgia Tech, Cincinnati, and Amherst, Coach Johnson began whipping some promising rookies and returning lettermen into shape for the opener with Tech. Fred Eubler, centerfielder and RBI specialist . . . Dave Laude, outfielder and probable "hot corner" man . . . Stan Marks, third baseman last season and shortstop possibility this year . . . Lez Owens, reliable returning first sacker . . . John Imgrund, star moundsman with a blazing fast ball . . . Herb Werner, "blanket-like" outfielder . . . and Jerry Hopkins, dependable "chunker" and relief hurler . . . lead the prospects for the Hatter nine at press time.

Graduation left "Doc" and his assistant, Jim Forbes, looking around for a new keystone combination to replace Johnson and McNulty, and a capable receiver to replace Lou Paar. Donnelly and O'Flynn failed to return to school and left gaps in the hurling and hitting department. However, a bevy of prep pitching stars and infield hopefuls may give the Hats the needed punch to better last season's record of 16 and 8.

ORGANIZATIONS

Organizations play an integral and useful part in the life of every Stetsonian. They teach students how to work co-operatively with one another and also prepare these same students for future responsibilities which they will have to assume. Enough credit cannot be given in this paragraph to the religious groups which constantly strive to promote the Christian atmosphere on our campus; the professional groups which are devoted to helping the student learn more about his or her chosen field; and the publications, whose sole endeavors are concentrated on presenting and preserving life at Stetson, both for its present members and for posterity. EDITORIAL

Despite many trials and tribulations, The porter somehow managed to go to press each Thursday night—or the wee hours of Friday mornings—for thirty “exciting” issues.

A really terrific staff worked hard and long in producing a paper which would try to fill its vital niche in the University life.

Staff meetings, deadlines, Thursday coke parties, reading hilarious galley proofs, complete bedlam, climaxed by utter exhaustion on Fridays, will probably remain in the memories of the staff for years to come.

To the students that contributed their time and efforts to The Reporter, I would like to say, representing the student body—"Thanks a lot for a job well done."

Christian living. This year, however, instead of alternating as usual, there will be only one speaker. This week will be directed by the Open Work Shop presentation in the auditorio, "Ethics."

Jim Dwyer, chairman of the committee, has asked for suggestions from the students as to speaker and subjects, and suggested that any one wanting to help make arrangements for Dionysis Wee would be welcome.

The Hatter is the annual student publication and is presented by the Student Government Association of Stetson University. This year marks the 45th year the Hatter has been on the campus. The editor and business manager are elected by the student body in the annual fall elections and they in turn choose their staffs and produce the yearbook.

But so much for the cold facts. To those who have labored long and hard on the 1953 edition of the Hatter, it is much more than just a publication. It represents a great deal of planning, effort, and satisfaction when the work was finally completed.

I think that the Hatter will also be more than just a publication to you, the student body. It has been our untiring goal to present to you an accurate account of the activities of this past school year; an account which you will be able to look back upon and cherish with fond memories in the years to come.

Thanks for the privilege and honor which you gave me as editor of this edition of the Hatter. I only hope that the staff and I have fulfilled the trust which you put in us.

Stetson's ROTC unit serves the dual purpose of helping secure and prepare a strong defense for the nation while at the same time allowing each cadet to receive both his diploma and commission before entering the military service. It has come to be an integral part of the university and contributes much to our extracurricular activities, parades, and by sponsoring the annual Military Week-end.

Extra-curriculars at Stetson work and play all rolled into one big package of fun and entertainment. It is most gratifying when we notice that the events portrayed on these pages are, to coin a phrase, "of the students, by the students, and for the students" of Stetson University, and as such are one of the most appealing aspects of college life at this school.

The actual construction of the Little Theatre in 1930 was the realization of a dream for Dr. Irving Stover, Stetson's senior professor. And because of his untiring work in the fields of speech and drama, the theatre was named in his honor.

The Stover Theatre affords a wide variety of theatre activities. Students learn production, directing, acting, lighting, scene construction, and monagement through practice. Experimental plays, workshop plays, classic and modern plays ore a part of each year's program.

OPERA WORKSHOP

Opera Workshop was founded at Stetson in 1950 for the purpose of introducing opera to the student through active participation. Its aim is to produce "singing actors" rather than merely singers.

A minimum of scenery and costumes is used, and all scenes are sung in English so that the audience, too, may become acquainted with the great operas of the ages.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

With "Choose Ye This Day" as the theme and Dr. J. S. Evns to lead the seminars and chapel programs, Stetson once again enjoyed an inspiring and revealing Religious Emphasis Week. Dr. Evns, of the Gordon Street Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia spoke to students on such topics as "What Are You", "Seeing What You See", and "The Times and My Faith".

The purpose of Religious Emphasis Week is to awaken in the individual college student the urgency and necessity of Christianity in every phase of life, for himself and in dealings with other persons.

The final day of Religious Emphasis Week coincided with the 95th birthday of Dr. Warren S. Gordis.

Pres. Edmunds addresses the assembly.

WJBS

Stetson University

Stetson University owns and operates Radio Station WJBS in DeLand. Operating on 1490 Kilocycles, the NBC affiliated station gives students in the radio courses an opportunity to observe a typical radio operation manned by professional broadcasting personnel.

Dr. Clarence Menser, the University's Radio Director and General Manager of WJBS, looks on as students use a tape recorder in a Radio Speech Class.

A number of student activities are broadcast by the University station, and several regularly scheduled programs give students an opportunity to appear on the air.

Another of Dr. Menser's classes rehearses a typical program, engaging in discussion and working out production before appearing on the air.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL WEEK

CARL HOLTY
Painter

Stetson University brings to its students, each year, outstanding leaders in the arts, and the week of the Fine Arts Festival is devoted to talks and demonstrations by these different artists. Music, painting, and drama were the three arts which were stressed during this year's most successful event.

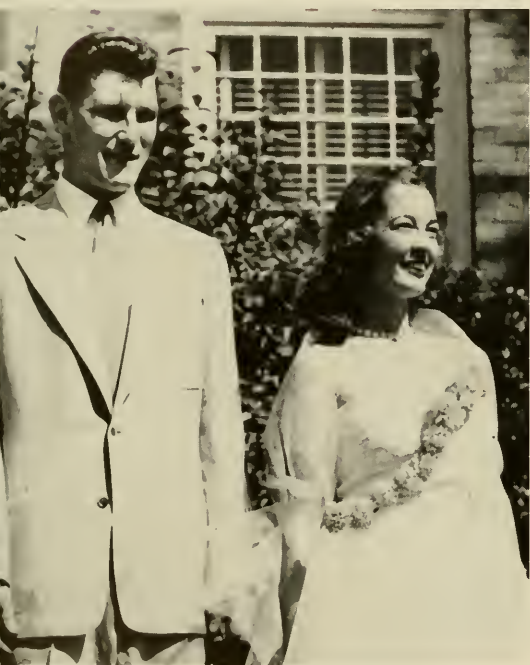

BLANCHE YURKA

HATTER HOLIDAY

Hugo Hughes and Marilyn Tolton
MR. and MISS STETSON

"Hatter Holiday", which is sponsored by the Student Government Association of Stetson University, took on a different makeup in 1952 as activities remained centered around campus in the Forest of Arden instead of having the students migrate to some spot off campus for the festivities.

Various organizations on campus competed in different contests—pie eating, tug of war, cross country race, wheelbarrow race, etc.—while later in the afternoon after students had enjoyed a wonderful barbecue, Hugo Hughes and Marilyn Talton were crowned as Mr. and Miss Stetson respectively and Richard Paddock ran off with the prize for the "Ugliest Man on Campus" competition. Festivities were completed with a dance that night at the Airport Arena with Claude Thornhill providing the music.

The purpose of "Hatter Holiday" is to provide a student's counterpart for the activities which the alumni enjoy during Homecoming.

THE ALMA MATER

By Lincoln Hulley

*Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children!
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely;
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples,
Hail, Alma Mater dear.*

*Hail to the heroes who have gone before us.
Young men and maidens, filled with true devotions!
Bright is their glory, fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!*

*Hail to our classmates, bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge our vows of friendship;
Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud the chorus;
Long live our comrades dear!*

*Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus,
Hail, Alma Mater dear!*
